

Open Letter To The British Right

In view of certain developments since March 1993, this epistle is long overdue; I issue it now in order to clarify my position and to clear up all the fantasies and lies which have been spread about me by hatemongers of the misnamed fascist right and the even more misnamed anti-fascist left.

I first became active in far right politics, indeed any politics, around 1980. I was a member of the British Movement. I joined this particular political "party" because I was concerned at the rise of communism. This may sound absurd today, but it should be remembered that this was at a time when the Soviets had just invaded Afghanistan and the West was doing absolutely nothing to liberate either the Afghans or anyone else from their tyranny. I joined the British Movement because they were at least making the right noises about the communist menace. Although I realised that the party was pro-Nazi, I wasn't the least bit concerned with either its ideology or with race issues. I was also totally ignorant of the Jewish Question. Needless to say I've come a long way since then.

As well as the British Movement, I also joined the British UFO Society at about the same time; in retrospect I don't know which of these I find the most embarrassing, but although I have long since become both a hardened opponent of all forms of totalitarianism and a hardened skeptic, I neither regret nor apologise for my past mistakes.

I did not, as two of my defenders have claimed, realise that all the British Movement stood for was worthless and evil, rather I realised that although the far right ask the right questions they have the wrong answers. The far left don't even ask the right questions and are too absorbed in denouncing all and sundry as fascists and promoting the phony class struggle ever to do anything worthwhile, like challenging the system of irredeemable debt which enslaves us all. The claim by the Socialist Workers Party ad nauseum that they attack "fascists" and racists because they are opposed to hatred is laughable; these are the same people who have given virtually unconditional support to the IRA and other murderers of innocent people on the grounds that any means justifies the end - the overthrow of "Imperialism" and the capitalist system, and the placing of the means of production under "workers' control". In other words, their own.

It's also worth bearing in mind that at the time I first dabbled in politics there was in this country a massive nuclear disarmament movement - I won't call it the "peace movement" - especially in Yorkshire where I was living. Again, in retrospect, this was complete nonsense, glasnost and Perestroika if not the Sutton revelations have since exposed the hollowness of the Soviet menace; these countries could barely feed their own people without Western assistance, much less threaten us.

I dropped out of all political activity for many years although

I continued to read literature both right and left. The latter, being primarily polemical, I found tiresome in the extreme. I began taking a proper interest again round about 1988 when I read a book by an American Jew, Defending My Enemy. The author explained why as a Jew he felt obliged to defend the right of Nazis to free speech. I was more impressed with that book than with most anything else I'd read up to that time, bar the works of Major Douglas and Dr Sun Yat-sen's Three Principles of the People, and I rapidly became a Libertarian. A while later I joined the Libertarian Alliance, I also joined the Islamic Party of Britain as an associate member, primarily because as a long time Social Crediter I supported - and continue to support - its economic policies.

Now, about me personally. You will have heard from certain far right sources that I am a deranged Jew, or, in the words of pseudo-Nazi Anthony Hancock, "a neurotic little Jew with an identity crisis and an ongoing mental illness."

The truth is that I have no Jewish ancestry whatsoever, but I really couldn't give a fuck in any case because the Jewish Question is neither race nor religion but politics pure and simple. Or rather very impure, and both extremely complex and unbelievably sordid. All the stuff you've heard about me being a pathological anti-Semite during my short time in the BM, or about my being the BNP's press officer, it's all garbage: Chinese whispers and outright lies. You may also have seen a document which purports to prove my Jewish origins; my real name is said to be Silvers. It's true I did change my name in 1980, but only because I didn't like the one I was Christened with. Yes, I was Christened. Elton John, Freddie Mercury, Diana Dors and hosts of other goyim have also changed their names. So what?

The document you may have seen is similar to one which was going the rounds a few years ago purporting to prove the Jewish origins of Richard Verrall. And is precisely the sort of thing I would expect from the UK distributor of the Protocols of Zion. Aside from Verrall and myself, everyone from Engels to Hitler has been branded Jewish by these demented sickos who masquerade as National Socialists.

A few words about Hancock. My relationship with Teflon Tony was purely business. A few years ago I needed a cheap printer - one who would ask no questions. I spent some time working on a legal campaign, and some of the literature we published could have been construed as libellous. I used my acquaintance with Hancock and his sidekick Haley to aid my researches into the extreme right, something I was quite open about. Whatever Hancock thinks of me, he had no qualms about taking my money, and I have a County Court judgment against him to prove it! With regard to my researches, I began publishing my findings in earnest in December 1992 with A Goy Pries Into The Talmud. This was written in collaboration with an Orthodox rabbi whom I met totally by chance through the legal campaign in 1990.

My rabbi friend is a staunch anti-Zionist, though because of the nature of this cancer he has to keep his opinions largely to himself. It was through him that I got an insight into Zionism through Jewish eyes. We decided to set up a publishing house to refute anti-Semitic propaganda and to campaign on a low level against Zionism. To this end we sent out a mailing which included an ill-designed flyer featuring a number of anti-Semitic cartoons in context. To one of these had been appended the head of a certain Mr Gerry Gable. I did this partly for devilment, but also partly because Gable had been smearing Larry O'Hara unremittingly in his lie-ridden magazine.

To date I have met O'Hara precisely twice, and although I like him, and although he believes that "fascists" should have free speech, he is in every other respect a typical left wing creep, who, for example, refers to militant homosexuals as radical people rather than the vectors of disease and reservoirs of filth that they are. We have nothing at all in common except a desire to bury Searchlight, O'Hara because he believes, erroneously, that Gable is some sort of M.I.5. agent, myself because I recognise him for the enemy of humanity, arch-liar, freelance hate-monger and exploiter of racial bigotry that he is.

Our fund-raising letter threw Organised Jewry into hysteria and in short order my flat was raided and my computer and files confiscated. I will spare the reader the sordid details of the lies and smears against my rabbi friend and myself, most of which emanated from the Jewish Chronicle, but after nine months the police and CPS conceded that they had no case against me and I am currently suing the police for false arrest.

Because it's sub judicæ I can't say anything about my case against Gable, but many of you will have realised by now that I have since proved him a damned liar many times over, especially with regard to the 1965 synagogue arsons and his other Nazi-hunting fantasies. Gable is now totally discredited, as will be his "mole" - read agent provocateur - Hill when my book on him is published. All it needs is for my researches, and to some extent O'Hara's, to get around, and these damned liars and hatemongers will be flushed down the toilet of history where they both belong.

You will doubtless have heard the claim that Baron is secretly "one of us", a closet fascist and an anti-Semite at heart. Just so there can be no ambiguity, let me clarify this point to put it forever beyond dispute. There is no ideology I loathe more than fascism in all its myriad forms. Including kosher fascism, and the "fascism" practised by the likes of the Socialist Workers Party. If I ever had any sympathy at all for either the total state or big government in any way, manner, shape or form, it has been eradicated forever by my own encounter with Big Brother at the behest of Imperial Zion. Organised Jewry and the state tried to destroy me; if I hadn't enjoyed the magnificent support from my Libertarian - and Jewish - friends that I had, they would have succeeded. I am totally opposed to any form of government whatever its name which puts the "rights" of the state or any forever wailing-and-gnashing-of-teeth minority above those of the individual. And I don't give a fuck what minority it is: a Jewish minority, a black one, an Aryan one, a financial oligarchy, or whatever.

Nor am I any kind of anti-Semite, indeed, I have received a great deal of assistance and moral support from bona fide - ie Torah-true - Jews. And from other persons of Jewish origin, as Gable will find out to his cost when I call them as character witnesses. As well as fascism I also loathe racial hatred. By that I do not mean that nebulous entity racism, which doesn't exist in my book, but hatred of men and women solely on the basis of their race. Here I will include anti-Semitism, although as any authentic Jew will tell you, there is no such thing as the Jewish race. Certainly there are no proper racial criteria for Jewishness.

It is my opposition to racial hatred which has led me to exposing and attacking Searchlight and its controllers with such vehemence. Elsewhere I have described Gable as the sweepings of the ghetto, and his friends at Woburn House, in particular Nagler and Whine, as the slime of Organised Jewry. As indeed they are, and I make no apology for this, as, rather than being anti-Semitic ravings, these are objective statements based on hard evidence and personal experience. And as these people have also lied through their teeth about me and incited violence against me, any epithets I do use against them are merely returning like with like. Let me reiterate, the Jewish Question is a political issue, not just Zionism but the whole filthy cabal of militant "anti-fascism" as espoused and incited by Searchlight.

Zionism is a far worse form of racial hatred than Nazism ever was. The racial hatred of Nazism, inasmuch as the Nazis preached racial hatred, was directed entirely against the Jews. The racial hatred of Zionism is directed at the rest of mankind, in particular against the Aryan goyim - hence the Zionist-inspired obsession with miscegenation - and against the Arab peoples. I do not believe in the world Zionist conspiracy because a conspiracy is a secret, and there is nothing secret about either Zionism or the other subversive activities of Organised Jewry. They shout jump and the government says how high? Where's the conspiracy?

In point of fact, the person who at the moment is doing the most to keep these hatemongers at bay is himself a Jew. Nagler, Whine and others have been doing their utmost to destroy what little freedom of speech remains in this country by wailing and whining at Home Secretary Michael Howard: Come on Michael, you're one of us, Michael, don't let the side down, Michael. Remember who you are, what you are, etc ad nauseum. Howard has their measure, so have many other Jews in high places, and not so high places. But, unlike me, he's far too diplomatic to tell them to go to hell.

I will be publishing a pamphlet in support of my thesis in the not too distant future, but for the moment it will suffice to quote the words of Rabbi Yaacov Perrin at the funeral of Barukh Goldstein: "One million Arabs are not worth a Jewish fingernail."

As my friends in the Neturei Karta anti-Zionist sect say, this statement and the Hebron massacre symbolise Zionism in its true form. For the record, I attended the demonstration they organised against the Hebron massacre at Baker Street the following week, and, I am reliably informed, the photographs I took of it have now been relayed to the Arab press in Tunis and to the Orthodox Jewish press in Jerusalem. And what was the response of the so-called "defence committee" of the kosher fascists at Woburn House to Hebron, and to Rabbi Perrin's sick pronouncement? If they condemned it at all they did so in a whisper. Compare this with the uproar caused by John Kingsley Read and his one down one million to go speech, or the hullabaloo when Robert Relf wanted to sell his house "to an English family only". These are the kind of people who dragged the principled but gullible Lady Birdwood into court not once but twice for publishing the insane ravings of some anti-Jewish lunatic. They're filthy hypocrites who deserve to be hated whatever their race. These are the people who lied through their teeth about me, and who had the gall to refer me to the Attorney General for publishing a pamphlet asking Jews not to send money to Israel to support this cancerous ideology and their murderous campaigns. And on top of all that, like Gerry sweepings of the ghetto Gable, they try to make out that I am attacking the Jews, and that I am inciting hatred against them. In reality no one has done more to incite hatred against the Jews than that filthy cabal at Woburn House, unless it's that other filthy cabal at 37b New Cavendish Street.

To them, anyone who doesn't bow down and kiss the arse of Imperial Zion is an anti-Semite, as both "Red" Vanessa Redgrave and "Red" Ken Livingstone discovered when they spoke out for Palestinian rights. If I weren't attacked by these slime, if I weren't libelled from pillar to post by them, if they didn't denounce me as a fascist and anti-Semite, I'd be doing something wrong.

Zionism is much more than Jewish fascism or Jewish racism, and it is certainly more than the (phony) aspiration of the Jews for self-determination in their own land. Zionism is a cancer, one which has seduced, brainwashed and indoctrinated most of the Jews, certainly in the West, and most of the foreign and domestic policy makers and academics in the United States and elsewhere.

Zionism is the ultimate form of racial hatred, it is a philosophy which says that the world is against the Jews and that the Jews must destroy anti-Semitism and anti-Semites BY WHATEVER MEANS NECESSARY. And where there are no anti-Semites, they have to be created. This is the raison d'être of Searchlight, as its portrayal of race conscious Aryans makes abundantly clear.

So where am I at? Basically I intend to continue my researches and seminal publishing on the Jewish Question and the far right, but I also want to restore free speech and to get Gable and his kind off all our backs permanently. This can only be done by education, and it's a slow, painful process. In spite of all the hysteria about "no platform for fascists", there is only one kind of person who fears free speech, and that's a damned liar. Gable and his friends at Woburn House are not just damned liars, they are the world's master liars.

The reality is that the fascist menace is in every sense a manufactured menace. This doesn't mean that there is no fascist threat or that there are no racially motivated murders, for example, clearly there are. But let's take an objective look. In the past thirty years there have been over 3,000 murders related to the "Troubles" in Northern Ireland; on mainland Britain there have been literally a handful of purely racially motivated murders out of a population forty times the size. IRA murders are "politically correct", the murders of Stephen Lawrence and Rolan Adams weren't. A corollary of this is that if either of these young men had been serving soldiers in Northern Ireland, (like boxer and former soldier Nigel Benn), their murders would have been applauded. As I write these words there are reports of 100,000 dead in Rwanda, which just goes to prove what wicked scum we Aryans are. The Liberal Democrats alone have over 4,000 local councillors, which just goes to show how important Derek Alf Garnett Beackon really is. Yet hundreds of thousands of pounds have been spent on the hate campaign against the BNP in Tower Hamlets. If they had ten local councillors, or a hundred, and a couple of dozen MPs as well, what would be the problem? Clearly the "cure" is worse than the disease, as Mike Newland and dozens of other victims of "anti-fascist" thuggery will testify, including myself.

There is and will remain racially motivated violence, but this is hardly surprising when a considerable percentage of the indigenous population are sick to death of having "anti-racism" forced down their throats, of being told what wicked Aryan scum they are, of being propagandised by fantasies such as Holocaust, Roots and Schindler's List, and being denied free speech by the likes of the Socialist Workers Party, Organised Zionist Jewry and other such champions of democracy and tolerance.

That's all I have to say, if you want to believe the lies and shit spread by the likes of Anthony Hancock and Mike Whine, that's your problem, but if you want to restore a semblance of free speech in this country so that your particular party or group can hold meetings and preach its message, you can make sure that our researches are read as widely as possible. Our biggest obstacle is of course financial, so perhaps you can send us a donation or help us out with printing or distribution.

Why am I so eager to restore free speech for the proponents of a philosophy I openly despise? As I've explained already, the real menace is not from you but from the likes of Gable, Whine and the SWP, and from the undemocratic laws they and their kind have succeeded in foisting on this country. Suppressing any minority, however unpopular, always leads to tyranny. But apart from that, I've heard what you have to say, and I believe that an objective presentation of fascism or any collectivist ideology is the best way to defeat it. All the wailing and whining of the "anti-fascist" movement and "anti-racist" campaigners is bullshit, all of it. Like international Zionism and the increasingly feisty - and infinitely sicker - organised homosexual movement, they seek only to impose their own agenda on everyone else. And anyone who doesn't go along with it one hundred per cent is smeared as a fascist, racist, anti-Semite, Nazi or homophobe in time honoured fashion. In truth, we've allowed these scumbag collectivists to destroy all our freedoms just because we're afraid of them calling us names.

In the final analysis, the only people who truly give a fuck about freedom are Libertarians; that's what I am, and that's what I'll remain.
